

Dan and Amy Hay

UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA BCM

About the Family

Before Amy and I got married, we committed to each other and God to make disciples our whole lives. For the past 17 years that has meant working at a private Christian K-12 school in Texas, working with student leadership, teaching classes and leading missions trips.

The Lord has been stirring in our hearts a change, so we are moving back to Oklahoma to make disciples at the University of Oklahoma (OU) with the amazing ministry at the Oklahoma University Baptist Collegiate Ministry. Please pray for our five kids in the transition—Sadie (13), Jack (10), Bonnie (7), Ruthie (3) and James (1).

About My Ministry

Amy and I have a passion to disciple men and women to disciple others (2 Timothy 2:2). We were discipled in college and see the university as a crossroads for young people. University students, Christian or not are confused. We want to help them see Christ clearly, and that modern challenges to faith are no surprise to Him and help them develop a strong foundation to help them navigate through life and discover what the Lord wants them to do for the kingdom.
